RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMER BILL OF RIGHTS

- A. Utility service will not be terminated for non-payment of a disputed bill while the complaint is pending. The customer is responsible, however, for paying any portion of the bill that is not in dispute, as well as all future bills on a current basis.
- B. If a customer disputes a payment arrangement, the company will refer the customer to a Division review officer.
- C. If a customer disagrees with the decision of the review officer, the customer has the right to appeal the decision to the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) at 100 John Street, Wallingford, CT 06492, telephone (203) 294-2263.
- D. If the PUC is unable to settle the dispute to the satisfaction of both the customer and the Division, both the customer and the Division have the right to request a formal hearing before the PUC.
- E. During the time which a customer is appealing a payment arrangement, electric service will not be shut off.
- F. Any residential customer may request that a third person, designated by the customer, receive copies of all notices pertaining to termination of services sent by the Electric Division.
- G. If you are a tenant and the termination of service is threatened, you have the right to have service put in your name, or if individually metered, or if master metered, in the name of all the tenants, if they agree.
- H. During the time which a customer is appealing a payment arrangement or a denial of hardship status, electric service will not be shut off.

It will be the policy of the Electric Division to notify our delinquent accounts:

- 1. That 13 days after mailing notice, the service will be subject to termination for non-payment.
- 2. The conditions required to prevent shut off.
- 3. The availability of payment arrangements to those customers who have not previously defaulted on an arrangement.
- 4. The specific date after which shut-off may be made.
- 5. The conditions for restoration of service, such as reconnect fees, etc.
