Cathy Granucci

Coalition for Wallingford has a passport for the Wallingford 350 Jubilee, we can tie-in with the QRLTAC's Step Up To The Challenge 350 Jubilee program, the QRLTAC should get a stamp for the CBW passports. The Coalition will donate a FitBit to raffle off at Celebrate Wallingford. There is a also CBW poster that we can use at our booth.

The QRLTAC sponsorship program now has a letter and forms, it is ready to start submitting to corporations and local area businesses.

The Carriage Ride was granted approval by Amphenol to use their parking lot again. Also, Park & Rec was contacted to see about the funding for the on-site police officer.

The QRLTAC will not be able to use the Carriage horses for the 2020 Jubilee parade, so we will need to find another sort of float.

Mary Mushinsky

The QRLTAC was awarded a $400K Connectivity Grant. There is another grant round coming for the DEEP Trail Grant, it comes with a 20% town-match grant. There are a few options for proceeding and will be discussed at the QRLTAC 501(c)3 Corporation quarterly meeting.

There is a need to start the Fireworks Island Raceway Bridge Design phase very soon.

Mary brought in a draft of the Kiosk final design.
